

Golden opinion of Hunter wine

HERE are Hunter producers' 2010 Sydney Wine Show trophy and gold-medal-winning wines that you can buy now:

■ Tempus Two 2004 Copper Zenith Semillon, (Dr H. J. Lindeman Trophy for the best white wine in the premium and aged vintage classes), $30 – only at the Tempus Two cellar door, on the corner of McDonalds and Broke roads, Pokolbin.

■ McGuigan 2007 Bin 9000 Semillon, $13.50 – in wine stores.

■ McGuigan 2005 Vineyard Select Semillon, $25 – only at the McGuigan winery in McDonalds Road, Pokolbin.

■ Andrew Thomas 2004 Braemore Semillon, $45 – at the Small Winemakers' Centre, in McDonalds Road, Pokolbin, and the Hunter Resort Hermitage Road cellar door or at thomaswines.com.au.

■ Drayton's 2009 Vineyard Reserve Chardonnay, $30 – in some wine stores, at the Oakey Creek Road, Pokolbin, cellar door or by mail order on 4998 7513 or draytonswines.com.au.

■ Brokenwood 2004 ILR Reserve Semillon, $45 – in fine wine stores and at the winery, in McDonalds Road, Pokolbin.

■ Briar Ridge 2007 Dairy Hill Shiraz, $60 – on limited allocation at the Mount View Road, Mount View, cellar door.

■ Tyrrell's 2004 HVD Semillon, $30 – in shops and at the Broke Road, Pokolbin, winery.

■ Tyrrell's 2004 Belford Semillon, $30 – in shops and at the Broke Road, Pokolbin, winery.

■ Tower Estate 2009 Clare Valley Riesling, $25 – at the Tower Estate winery, Broke Road, Pokolbin.

success: David Clarke presents Tempus Two's Lisa McGuigan and Scott Comyns with a trophy, above. Competition judge Iain Riggs and winner Chris Tyrrell, top.